Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Allen B. Brown has dedicated his life to the practice of law in his community. He has been involved in active leadership roles in his church, civic endeavors, and has made his community a much better place in which to live, work, play, and enjoy; and,

Whereas, Allen graduated from Dell Rapids High School in 1952, served in the U. S. Army from 1954 to 1956, graduated from The University of South Dakota in 1958, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration, and from The University of South Dakota in 1961, with his law degree; and,

Whereas, Allen will be recognized by his law firm and colleagues on Sunday, November 13, 2011, for his 50 years of commitment to providing legal services to Dell Rapids and the surrounding area; and,

Whereas, It is appropriate for the Governor of the state of South Dakota to make special note of his friend and fellow South Dakotan on this important and special day:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 13, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join his wife, Gloria, son, Bob, daughter, Kathy, three grandchildren, sisters, brothers, law partners, and his many friends in recognizing his 50 years of faithful service.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor
